CRIMINAL ACTION NO. 3:18-CR-15

ORDER

Pending before the Court is the Defendant's Unopposed Motion for Continuance (Dkt. 21). In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161, the basis for the continuance is the finding that the ends of justice served in granting such continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the Defendant in a speedy trial.

The Court finds that, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161, a failure to grant continuance in this case would deny counsel for the Defendant the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation taking into account the exercise of due diligence and would thereby result in a miscarriage of justice for the Defendant.

The Defendant recites that there has been inadequate time to sufficiently prepare for trial. Denial of the reasonable time necessary for effective trial preparation is expressly enunciated in 18 U.S.C. § 3161 as a factor in determining that a continuance in the ends of justice would outweigh the public's interest in a speedy trial.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Defendant's motion for continuance is GRANTED. A period of excludable delay shall commence from today, May 21, 2019, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161, and continue until June 19, 2019.

It is further ORDERED that the scheduling order is amended as follows:

Re-arraignment is set for June 19, 2019 at 1:30 PM.

SIGNED at Galveston, Texas, this 21st day of May, 2019.
